

Passenger Claim Authorization Agreement

This Airline Compensation Authorization Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into between the undersigned passenger(s) ("Passenger") and the Company for the purpose of pursuing compensation arising from a disrupted flight.

The Passenger confirms that they experienced a flight disruption, which may include delay, cancellation, or denied boarding, and authorizes the Company to act on their behalf to submit, negotiate, and pursue compensation claims with the operating airline and relevant authorities.

The Passenger grants the Company permission to collect, process, and submit all necessary personal data and documentation required to pursue the claim. This authorization includes communication with airlines, regulators, and third parties strictly for claim-related purposes.

Any compensation obtained as a result of this claim may be subject to service fees or commissions as agreed separately between the Passenger and the Company. The Passenger acknowledges that compensation outcomes are not guaranteed and depend on airline response and applicable aviation regulations.

This Agreement does not waive any mandatory passenger rights provided under applicable consumer protection or aviation laws. The Passenger confirms that all information provided is accurate and that they have the legal authority to enter into this Agreement.

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the applicable jurisdiction. By signing below, the Passenger confirms that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms of this Agreement.
